

Sabaragamuwa University of Sri Lanka
Department of Physical Science and Technology
In class test
PST 22211 – Operating System

01. Explain why an operating system is needed in a computer or mobile phone.
 02. Explain how an operating system manages hardware resources.
 03. A student opens Chrome, Word, and a music player at the same time. Explain how the OS handles this.
 04. Explain what a process is using a real-world example.
 05. Explain how the OS manages memory when many programs are running.
 06. Explain what a file system is and how the OS helps users manage files.
 07. Explain deadlock using a real-world computer example.
 08. Explain the difference between foreground and background processes.
 09. Explain the five-state process model using a real-world example.
 10. Choose one OS you use daily and explain its main functions.
-